Customer Journey Map

Map out the customer's experience stage-by-stage, capturing their actions, touchpoints, thoughts, and feelings, along with process ownership and improvement opportunities at each stage.

Phase of Journey	Stage 1: Input	Stage 2: Generate & Review	Stage 3: Export
Actions What does the customer do?	Enter story prompt, character, setting, tone and art style.	Submit inputs and review generated panels.	Click download and save the comic PDF.
Touchpoint What part of the service do they interact with?	Homepage form (index.html).	Comic preview page with panel images and narration.	Download button and export-success page.
Customer Thought What is the customer thinking?	"Can I turn my idea into a comic easily?"	"Does the story match my prompt and style?"	"I have a finished comic I can save/share."
Customer Feeling What is the customer feeling?	Excited but uncertain.	Curious and engaged; may refine preferences.	Satisfied after successful export.

Process Ownership Who is in the lead on this?	User + frontend	FastAPI + AI services	FastAPI export flow
Opportunities How can we improve this stage?	• Keep form simple. • Validate required inputs. • Allow easy regeneration.	• Show clear generation status. • Keep panels readable. • Allow style/tone refinement.	• Provide clear export feedback. • Preserve panel order. • Support reliable PDF creation.
